

New Rear Wide View Camera captures a 180-degree rear view that can be displayed on a touchscreen inside the vehicle – so pedestrians, cyclists and other vehicles passing behind the vehicle can be more easily seen. Radar sensors also detect vehicles crossing behind and can apply the brakes to avoid collisions