

Ford Announces Government Affairs Personnel Change

- Ziad Ojakli, Ford group vice president for government and community relations has elected to leave the company
- His work to establish Ford as a trusted source to governments around the world and his support of the company's global community efforts will continue to serve the company in the future
- For the immediate future, the work will continue under the leadership of Stephen Biegun. Ojakli's permanent replacement will be the subject of a future announcement.

DEARBORN, Mich., June 28, 2018 – Ford Motor Company today announces that Ziad “Z” Ojakli, group vice president, government and community relations, has elected to leave the company effective July 15.

Since joining the company in 2004, Ojakli has overseen Ford's global government affairs and its philanthropic arm, the Ford Motor Company Fund.

“Z has been a valuable member of the Ford team for nearly 15 years,” said Executive Chairman Bill Ford. “During this time, he has been instrumental in driving global policy outcomes and leading philanthropic programs that support Ford's vision for growth and a better world.”

For the immediate future, the work of government and community will continue under the leadership of Stephen Biegun. Ojakli's permanent replacement will be the subject of a future announcement.

About Ford Motor Company

Ford Motor Company is a global company based in Dearborn, Michigan. The company designs, manufactures, markets and services a full line of Ford cars, trucks, SUVs, electrified vehicles and Lincoln luxury vehicles, provides financial services through Ford Motor Credit Company and is pursuing leadership positions in electrification, autonomous vehicles and mobility solutions. Ford employs approximately 202,000 people worldwide. For more information regarding Ford, its products and Ford Motor Credit Company, please visit www.corporate.ford.com.